

Control Valve Service Department

Factory Repair Center

Whether your valve needs a simple cleaning, repacking or a complete refurbishment, our technicians are available to service your equipment. Our valve repair center prides itself on quick turnaround and uses only factory-authorized parts for all repairs.

All parts are not created equal. Only genuine Research Control® Valve parts are manufactured to the exacting requirements of the original valve. This means only genuine Research Control Valve parts deliver the most reliable and safest long-term performance, prevent unscheduled downtime, and minimize the need for costly, time consuming repairs. Only genuine Research Control Valve parts ensure that your valve warranty remains intact. Protect your valve investment. Look for the Research Control Valve name on the part or packaging. Demand nothing less.
